We are looking for driven, enthusiastic, and self-motivated Interns to join our Curatorial team. In this internship you will assist in researching information on objects from within the collection, creating supplemental label copy, and informative didactic wall material. This internship position is a great opportunity to become involved with the hands-on process of researching and creating informational material with the Savannah African Art Museum's curatorial and research department. The intern will work under the guidance of the Chief Curator to ensure that research conducted follows a standard of accuracy and ethics.

Requirements:

- Liberal Arts, Art History, History, Africana Studies, Anthropology, Writing, or Museum Studies Major
- Skilled in research and writing
- Proficient in Microsoft Office.
- Equipped with tools to conduct ethical and accurate research
- Detail-oriented with strong organizational skills
- Able to work on multiple projects in a fast-paced environment
- An exemplar of strong work ethics and high-performance standards
- Skilled in academic writing
- Passionate about research

Responsibilities:

- Researching objects on view and in storage
- Creating label copy for museum objects
- Developing informational didactic wall material for museum galleries
